AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of PATENTS
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
NO. 76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST.,
BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.—Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON," Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,"
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. P. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

From Sept. 17th, 1857, to June 17th, 1858, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made, on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE
THAT HAS STOOD THE TEST OF YEARS,
And grows more and more popular every day!

And testimonials, new, and almost without number, might be given from ladies and gentlemen in all grades of society, whose united testimony none could resist, that Prof Wood's Hair Restorative will restore the bald and gray, and preserve the hair of the youth to old age, in all its youthful beauty.

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec 21st, 1858.

PROF WOOD: Thee wilt please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short; it is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destitute of means to purchase any more, I would ask thee if thee wouldst not be willing to send me an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture declaration—"the reward is to those that are kind to the widow and the fatherless."
Thy friend, SUSANNAH KIRBY.
Ligonier, Noble Co., Indiana, Feb. 5th, 1859.

PROF O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but, receiving no assurance from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time, I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy.

As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Very respectfully, yours,
A. M. LATTA,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

Depot, 444 Broadway, and sold by all dealers throughout the world.

The Restorative is put up in Bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars a bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion and retails at $3 a bottle.

O. J. WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo.

And sold by CASWELL, MACK & CO., 137 Thames Street, Newport, and by all good Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

THE WIDOW'S RUSE.
From the London Spectator.

It was in the year—but no matter, I have the most treacherous memory imaginable for dates; when Quarz was at Berlin—you, of course, know who Quarz was—if you do not, I'll tell you. He was the celebrated musical composer and musician at the court of Frederick the Great, and, by the way, taught him the flute. Quarz was the pupil of the famous counterpointist, Garpurini, Quarz, in short, was the man who, as he was leaving the orchestra one night, heard a ball whistle in his ear, ticketed for him by the Spanish ambassador, who was in love with a certain marchioness. I can assure you the aim was a good one, and the maestro might well bob his head and wink his eyes.

At the time of which I was speaking, before I got into these parentheses, Quarz was forty-one; tall and well-made in his person, and of a noble and characteristic countenance, which, joined to a talent whose superiority no one could dispute, gave him free access to all societies, and caused him to be well received everywhere. He was, among others, particularly intimate with one Schindler, a friend of his youth, who had followed the same studies—almost with the same success. What a blessing was such a friend! In his house, after the fatigues and adulations that every coming day brought with it, Quarz passed his evenings. At Schindler's he sought for a balm to the wounds of envy and jealousy, fortified his mind against the caprices of the great, and, above all, from Schindler he was sure to meet with a tribute due to his genius, and praises that came from the heart.

But death laid his cold and pitiless hand on Schindler, and with his terrible scythe cut that knot, which only he could sever.

No record of the time remains to tell us whether Madame Schindler "lamented him sore." There are some sorrows over which we are forced to throw a veil. Perhaps she did, perhaps she did not shed a tear—perhaps a flood of tears. Habit and long intimacy are mighty and powerful things.

Yet, though Schindler was no more, Quarz still continued his visits: whether from long custom, or particular affection for his lost friend, does not appear; and the young widow continued to receive him with her accustomed welcome.

For a considerable time no particular occurrence happened to interrupt their interviews, the motive of which seemed to be a mutual consolation. It is only by looking closely, and examining events with attention, that we can discover any diminution of their affections for poor Schindler; but by degrees he faded from their memory. They now and then spoke of him, it is true, but less and less, till at last they ceased to speak of him at all. Schindler was allowed to slumber peaceably in his case of wood, was quietly inured, "requiescebat in pace."

For myself, I can perfectly understand all this. I can see no necessity for remaining inconsolable at an irreparable loss, and can conceive no folly greater than his or hers had they doomed themselves to eternal regrets.

Whilst the lamp burns, if ever so feebly, nourish the flame by all means; but when once it is extinguished, it is a waste of time and common sense to trim or supply it with oil. There is an old French song that runs thus:

"Quand on est mort, c'est pour long temps."

Thus, as I said, Madame Schindler had given up weeping, and as every one should have some occupation or other, she bethought herself of getting a new husband in lieu of the old. The idea was not a bad one. Is it not so? With this view she employed herself in repairing the disorder of her toilet—in smiling on her visitors—in coquetting with them a little. And who can blame her? If you know mankind as well as I do, you must be aware that these things, much as we may despise them, go a great way in the world. Depend on it, that if a woman is simple in her manners, and plain in her dress, and without what most people term affectation or coquetry, no one will take the trouble of looking at her twice.

Madame Schindler's house underwent a similar metamorphosis to her own.

The venetians that had for a whole year been carefully closed began to let in the day, and were draperied with more care and elegance than ever. The very furniture seemed to assume a new life. Her doors opened almost of themselves to her former friends or new acquaintances, and more than one guest at a time took his seat at her dinner-table.

Friday Morning, Dec. 14, 1860.

THE UNDER-CURRENT IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

Southern newspapers and Southern telegraph operators, would lead us here at the North to suppose that public sentiment in South Carolina is all one way, and in favor of immediate, unconditional secession. But we have ever believed there was an under-current which would eventually find the light of day, and it seems we were not mistaken. The conservative element is already making itself audible in that State, and though it may be and doubtless is, in the minority, will come forth and do its work. The Columbia, S. C., correspondent of the Baltimore American writes a letter from which we quote:

"The legislative session of South Carolina continues to progress slowly, and without anything of special interest transpiring. While everything indicates the utmost unanimity among a large class of the legislators in regard to the all-absorbing and ever-fruitful topic of separate State action, there is strongly apparent, nevertheless, a powerful under-current exerting a silent influence in opposition to precipitate movement. The preparations to be made for accession, the arming of the State, and above all, the appointmen of officers to lead the armies of South Carolina when necessity shall call them into the field, excites a degree of attention and calls for the expenditure of breath in the legislative halls quite unprecedented. How are the commanding officers to be appointed? who is to appoint them? are the great questions.

"There are two parties in the House of Representatives brought into contention upon this subject, and during the past week their conflict has been most determined and bitter. The one party is jealous of power in the Executive in the matter of levying war and the selection of commanders of the troops to be raised. The other, and to all appearances, the dominant party, have, through their leaders, declared all confidence in the next Executive to be chosen, whoever he may be. They regard the future Governors of the State in the light of sovereigns. They have already increased his power, as they have increased his salary. No later than Saturday a gentlemen publicly declared on the floor of Representatives, that he regarded the Governor of South Carolina at this juncture as a military dictator. He warmly advocated the further increase of power. Indeed, among all the educated men with whom I have conversed, the conviction already seems to be gaining strong ground that the masses are incapable of self government. The indisposition to intrust them with powers to choose their own military leaders in this crisis is an evidence. The Legislature is strongly tinctured with this sentiment, and hence the advocacy of all measures to strengthen the powers of the Executive. The debates upon military bills evidence great mistrust in the purity of judgment of the masses.

"You of the border States, who have all along so calmly viewed the issues of the day, will not be surprised at this, for the first step once taken God knows where and when it will end. The people are wrought up to the highest pitch of excitement, and many of them, calm, thinking men, know not where to turn, while the masses are as wild with the determination to secede as they are uncertain where and in what it will end.

"Fears are sometimes, though rarely, expressed that South Carolina will have to take her stand alone. This position the orators have gilded over with their bright imaginings, and have fired the burning patriotism of the chivalric sons of the South with the superlative glory the little State will have among the nations of the earth—free, independent and glorious.

"These bright phantoms of a flowery imagination take well with the masses. They burn with zeal, and are ready at any moment to rush into extremes. But sometimes—in small circles—it is suggested, and often it occurs to the minds of sober thinking men, who have nothing to gain from the favor of the people, that after all disasters and ruin will overtake them in secession. It is often asked, What is the State to do alone and as a sovereign? How will she maintain her position among the nations of the earth? Where will the money come from to support the Government? There will be no tax on importations—direct levies will be made—a poll tax of $25 or $50 will be insufficient for the purpose, even if such a sum could be collected. South Carolina is a very rich State, but there is here, as everywhere, a large majority of poorer people, and so heavy a poll tax would grind them to the earth. Oppression would be the result, and ruin, perhaps carnage and bloodshed, would ensue. These are weighty considerations, and will be so regarded. The thinking people will give them consideration."

BLOCK ISLAND GOING OUT.—We learn that the inhabitants of this island of the sea have taken the infection, wafted to them by southern breezes across the water, and following in the wake of South Carolina, Georgia, &c., are talking secession with a view to setting up a "confederacy" of their own—becoming an independent State. It is suspected, also, that Connecticut, Prudence, Gould, Hope, Patience, Despair and Hog Islands, in Narragansett Bay, all now embraced in the present State of Rhode Island, are entertaining ideas of secession, to be followed by Goat Island and the Lime Rocks—the sovereignty of Goat Island to be shared equally by Sergeant Morrison and Capt. John Case, and that of the Lime Rocks in uncle Hosea. Quite a community of separate principalities will thus be grouped together, with our own island eleven in all with Rose Island as a bone of contention to be striven for on the principle that the strongest wins. Who says we are not a great people?

A promient democrat of Kentucky said the other day: "If we of the South were to read Henry Clay's last speech at Lexington without knowing the author, it would be very generally ascribed to Seward or Wilson."

THE PRESIDENT'S POWER TO SUPPRESS INSURRECTION.—Mr. Buchanan who is a famous statesman, has said that, though a state has no right to secede from the Union, he possesses no power to prevent its secession when it pleases. Mr. Floyd, his Secretary of War, who is another famous statesman, following the lead of his august chief, has also given his opinion that the President is as powerless to prevent the secession of a state as a hen to prevent a brood of ducklings which she has unwittingly hatched from going into the water. Mr. Secretary Cobb, another famous statesman, encouraged by the example of his colleague and the President, not only sustains their opinion, but has resigned his position in the Treasury—now that there is nothing in it—and is going home to Georgia to be the Jason of this southern expedition in search of the Golden Fleece.

These are all famous statesmen, and yet famous statesmen sometimes commit oversights. If Mr. Buchanan and his advisers will take the trouble to refer to the 434th page of the first volume of the United States Statutes at Large, (Little & Brown's edition,) they will there find the following provision, which is still in full force and effect:

"Whenever the laws of the United States shall be opposed in the execution thereof—obstructed in any state by combinations too powerful to be suppressed by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, or by the powers vested in the marshals by this act—it shall be lawful for the President of the United States to call forth the militia of such state, or of any other state or states as may be necessary to suppress such combinations, and to cause the laws to be duly executed; and the use of militia so to be called forth may be continued, if necessary, until the expiration of thirty days after the commencement of the next session of Congress."

Perhaps Mr. Buchanan has not the disposition to enforce the laws of the general government in the revolting states; but when he, or any of his advisers, say they have not the power to enforce them, they simply say what is not true; and, what is more, by neglecting to enforce them they subject themselves to the penalties of impeachment for high treason.—N. Y. Eve. Post.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

SHALL WE HAVE A STEAM FIRE ENGINE?—The recent fires that have occurred in our city, have aroused a feeling of insecurity in the minds of our citizens, and at the same time suggested the need of additional strength to our fire department, by the substitution of steam for hand power in the apparatus used for the extinguishing of fires.

The purchase of a steam fire engine for this city has been a matter of deliberation for some considerable time, until now the necessity of the measure has pressed itself upon our community with renewed force. There is not the least doubt but one of these machines would have paid for itself in the saving of property in either one of the disastrous fires with which our city has been visited during the past year. Twenty-five hundred dollars (the price of one of these machines) seems to be a small sum to be expended for such a purpose, especially when we take into consideration the fact that one of them will do the work of four ordinary hand machines, and posses, besides, the additional advantage of never getting tired.

We trust there will be no delay in this matter on the part of the City Authorities, as we believe that they would be sustained in such a step by the voice of the entire community.

THE FIRE YESTERDAY MORNING.—The barn destroyed by the fire yesterday morning was the property of the widow of the late William Allen, deceased. There were destroyed, in addition to the barn, two tons each of hay and straw, which were put in Wednesday afternoon, and a horse valued at about fifty dollars. The fire was without doubt the work of an incendiary. Mr. James Allen, who occupied the barn, states that he has, on several mornings of late, on going down to the barn found it open and the horse running at large. It is evident that somebody in this community is up to mischief, and it becomes our citizens to keep their eyes peeled and their eye teeth cut.

FEATS A LA BLONDIN BY A MOUSE.—The press and composing rooms of the Daily News are infested by mice, making serious havoc with everything suitable to their palates, including the paste. Various devices have been resorted to to preserve this latter article from their ravages, but to no purpose. At last our foreman hit upon the following expedient: In the office is a wire about six inches below the ceiling and running some ten feet from the wall to another projection at the other extremity. About midway of this wire he attached a hook, to which he hung the pot of paste, assured that by so doing he had outwitted the troublesome thieves. What was his surprise to come in the morning and find that the mice had been at the paste! In reaching it they had traversed six feet of a slack wire one eighth of an inch in diameter. If mice are not some on ways and means when a supper is wanted, then we are mistaken.

Newport and Fall River Railroad.

At a meeting of the Corporation of the Newport and Fall River Railroad Company, held Thursday, Dec. 13, 1860, the Charter of Incorporation was accepted and adopted with its amendments. The following are the names of officers chosen: Directors, David Buffum, Benjamin Finch, Joseph I. Bailey, William C. Cozzens, Oliver Chace; and at a subsequent meeting of the Directors, Benjamin Finch was elected President, and David G. Cook, Secretary and Treasurer.

RUNNING A NAIL INTO HIS FOOT about two weeks ago and neglecting the wound, Patrick Sullivan, a lad employed in the lamp and oil store of William E. Dennis, in this city, is threatened with lock-jaw.

SECESSION ITEMS.

It is stated in Washington, that Members of Congress from Virginia, Maryland, and several from Kentucky, boldly declare that nothing short of a disbanding of the Republican party can arrest the dissolution of the Union. We doubt if this is so; but if it is, we don't see but the Union will have to slide. Anything in reason, but that is asking a little too much.

A great speed has been made in the papers of the circumstance that Major Lee, commanding the Baltimore National Volunteers, a light horse-regiment thirteen hundred strong, had written to Gov. Gist of South Carolina, saying "that the regiment has unanimously resolved to support, with their lives, any State or States in secession from this accursed league, and tendering their service in the event of coercion." Whereupon the Baltimore American says, that the aforesaid "light-horse regiment" is a myth—and "Major Lee" a creature alongside of which a man of straw would be a massive reality. Wonder if somebody wasn't sold.

Kentucky doesn't seem to be over and above anxious to keep step to the music of South Carolina's secession fiddle. Hear what the Louisville Democrat says:

We do not see how Kentuckians can have sympathy with South Carolina. Her papers assert that Kentucky can hardly be considered a slave State. Her Legislature forbids a Kentuckian from going with his slaves into her border. She exhibits for Kentucky and the border States contempt and derision. We trust that Kentucky will be equally indifferent to her. Let us strive to get her rights in the Union. If she fails, let her act independently, and not be dragged after South Carolina through mud, and mire, like a tin-kettle to a mangy cur's tail.

JOTTINGS AND GLEANINGS.

Newspaper Expenses.—The World daily newspaper of New York, it is said pays $7,000 a year rent, and $12,000 to $15,000 to editors, reporters, &c., and is losing money at the rate of $2,600 a week.

It is said the New York Sun, the oldest penny Daily in the world, is about to sell. As it enjoys the largest circulation within the city of any paper in New York, this would seem to be improbable.

There are at present about 60,000 offices in the gift of the General Government, for which there are said to be about 600,000 applicants. Five hundred and forty thousand men deemed to disappointment!

A detachment of Irish Zouaves is being organized in Rome.

There are 75,000 men in Philadelphia who are liable to do military duty.

Mrs. Susan Capers, widow of the eminent Bishop Capers, died at Charleston, South Carolina, on Friday.

Van Arma, the leading counsellor for Mr. Burch in the recent divorce case, is the gentleman who, a few years ago cleared, at Detroit, a woman on trial for the murder of her husband. It was charged that she administered poison in small cakes, three of which he ate during his closing plea. It is said that the jurors were not fairly in their room before he rushed out of the building, and threw from his stomach the poison. He knew that while a small dose would kill, a large dose would act as an emetic.

A Gypsey fortune teller swindled a credulous farmer in Monroe Co., Me., recently, out of $2,000, pretending to have discovered a cave of hidden treasure on his land.

J. L. Baker, aged 31, fell in love, six years ago, with Anna E. Mix, 8 years of age. On the 4th, she being just 14, he ran away with her, as she was going to school, and married her at Watervleit, N. Y.

Josephine Stone, who tried to hang herself lately in a police cell at Buffalo, made another attempt at the same place on Thursday night. She was fined $3 for vagrancy and attempted suicide, paid it and went her way. Suicide and vagrancy are expensive luxuries in Buffalo.

Mr. Wadsworth accidentally shot himself to death, at Memphis, Tenn., on Saturday evening, while examining two loaded pistols.

Major-General Duncan McDonald, an old revolutionary soldier, died on the 28th ult., at Edentown, N. C.

A little girl was drowned by falling into a vat of whiskey at Stearn's distillery, Richmond, Va., on Tuesday.

While loading a gun in a blacksmith shop at Swartswood, N. J., on Saturday, a spark from the anvil exploded the charge, which entered the eye of Jacob Bunn, killing him instantly.

A colored woman became furiously mad, suddenly, at Madison, Ia., on Tuesday; before she was secured she smashed all her furniture with an axe.

The lunatic who was burned up in the Hopkinsville, Ky., Asylum, at the conflagration of that institution, was chained to the floor of the underground cell.

New York, Dec. 13.—At the Kansas Aid Meeting last night, the subscription amounted to $1,254.

A NEW IDEA.—According to the Paris correspondent of the London Chronicle, "enlightened Americans" in the former city "attribute in a great degree, the success of the anti-slavery candidate [Mr. Lincoln] to the excellent effect produced by the visit of the Prince of Wales." The theory is that the advent of His Royal Highness removed the previous jealousy towards the English; sympathy for English sentiment followed, and an increased vote for Lincoln was the consequence. How very enlightened those "enlightened Americans" must be.—Prov. Press.

AN UNFORTUNATE SHIP.—Misfortune marked for its own the brig Crocus on her late voyage to Alexandria, Va. The captain lost his young wife, the mate was disabled for the voyage; one sailor died of bilious fever; another was lost, falling from aloft; a third was killed in the same manner; and on arrival the captain found that two of his little ones had died in his absence.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT AT DANIELSONVILLE.—Nathan Olds, one of the most estimable citizens of Danielsonville, was standing by the side of the railroad track, Tuesday morning, busily reading a letter, when he was struck by the bunter of an engine, and received injuries that resulted in death the next morning.

Gov. Weller has been confirmed as Minister to Mexico.

The barque Cora, of New York, under the command of Lieutenant T. H. Eastman, United States Navy, arrived at the port of New York on Saturday evening, from Monrovia, coast of Africa. The Cora is a lawful prize, having, on the 26th September, off Congo River, been captured by the United States flagship Constellation, with 706 Africans on board, who, undoubtedly, were to be sold into slavery. Commander Eastman reports that she was sighted at about seven o'clock in the evening, and that her movements being suspicious, they resolved to examine her.—The Cora, seeing the movement, attempted flight, when the Constellation lowered her boats and gave chase. At twelve o'clock, after five hours' chase, they captured her, finding on board the unlawful cargo of slaves, as above mentioned. Her provisions and other articles had been thrown overboard during the chase. The first, second, and third officers, named Frederick, Wilson and Olsen, all Americans, were brought in irons as prisoners.

THE FORT SCOTT AFFAIR.—S. J. Crawford, of Garnett county, K. T., arrived here yesterday. He left his home, in the neighborhood of Fort Scott, on Thursday last, and reports everything quiet. He says Montgomery had not been away from his farm for weeks, until within a few days past, when he went to Lawrence. The two or three cases of hanging which took place in that part of the State were the work of the celebrated Dr. Jennison and a small gang of Jayhawkers. Mr. Crawford states that the present troubles in that part of the Territory have arisen from the discontent of a number of settlers on the New York reservation lands. He says the reports furnished by Judge Williams were fabrications from beginning to end.—Democrat, St. Louis, Mo.

Despair Not, Relief is at Hand

CAUTION TO THE AFFLICTED.

Dr. Cudworth,

NO. 181 HIGH STREET, PROVIDENCE

AFTER an extensive practice for many years, and witnessing the rise and fall of empyricism to almost an alarming extent, owing to the laxity of the laws in large cities, which gives to the mere ignoramus the same privilege of practicing medicine in all diseases incident to the human system, which the most scientific, skilful and experienced physician and surgeon can in any case claim, deems it his duty to caution strangers to beware of certain up starts, who make great pretensions to the healing art, without so much as a shadow of medical education.

The experience of many years in cases of a venereal nature, in its various forms, will prove beneficial to those suffering from such diseases, and from his practical knowledge of every symptom consequent on, or arising from badly cured cases of Venereal Complaint, he would caution all having any secondary symptoms remaining, to be at once cured properly before it has undermined their constitution, and broken down the intellectual faculties.

TO YOUNG MEN—The temptations to which youth are constantly exposed, and the various snares laid to entrap them by the thousand designing are fearfully on the increase in this city of "steady habits." All who may be suffering from any such indiscretions, should bear in mind that the sooner they make their situation known to some practical medical man, the better it will be for their future welfare and happiness. Dr CUDWORTH can be consulted at all hours to advantage.

YOUNG MEN, YOU CAN BE CURED—Dr. CUDWORTH calls the attention of young men to his splendid and invigorating Compounds, so famous for the cure of the following diseases,

Coughs, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Consumption, Asthma, all diseases of the Chest and Lungs, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Cancer, Scrofula, Erysipelas, &c., Pains in the Limbs and Joints, Dizziness in the Head, Ringing in the Ears, Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Constitutional Debility, Want of Rest, Loss of Appetite, Cold Hands and Feet, Rush of Blood to the Head, Melancholy Forebodings, Trembling in the Stomach, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Sides and Back, and all symptoms caused by Seminal Weakness, or any other complaints which indiscreet persons are subject to.

BE WISE—When afflicted with a certain disease do not spend your money to have your health ruined by taking a host of medicines, such as mixtures, extracts, specifics, antidotes, etc, that are advertised as certain cures, which will only drive the unfortunate victim almost to despair. Call at once or a physician who will cure you in a few days:

CONFIDENTIAL—Ladies or gentlemen requiring medical advice or treatment arising from any cause, would do well to banish all present diffidence and make an early application to Dr. Cudworth. The Doctor's long and successful practice, together with the marvellous cures, are unquestionable guarantees of his skill and ability.

DR. CUDWORTH'S FEMALE SPECIFIC—This remedy, which has been so successfully used in all cases of Suppression and Irregularity incidental to married and single ladies, is only to be procured at his office, No. 3 Orange street, Providence, R. I

The testimony as to the invaluable virtue of this curative over all others, is incontestable.

The Daily News.

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a reliable Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often recommended by the Medical Faculty, as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling at reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most respectable houses in France, and known as

'Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy.'

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character. Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz., Eighths and Quarter Casks.

GREAT INDIAN REMEDY.
For Females.

Dr. Mattison's Indian Emmenagogue.

This celebrated Female Medicine, possessing virtues unknown of anything else of the kind, and proving effectual after all others have failed, is prepared from an Indian Plant used by the natives for the same purpose from time immemorial, and now for the first time offered to the public. It is designed for both married and single ladies, and is the very best thing known for the purpose, as it will bring on the Monthly Sickness in cases of obstruction after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain. This may seem incredible, but a cure is guaranteed in all cases or the price will be refunded.

1000 Bottles

PRICES—Full strength, $10. Half strength, $5. Quarter strength, $3 per bottle. Either will cure, but the strongest is the best, as it takes less, and cures in the SHORTEST TIME. ☞ Prepared and sold ONLY at DR. MATTISON'S REMEDIAL INSTITUTE FOR SPECIAL DISEASES, No. 23 UNION STREET, PROVIDENCE, R. I. ☞ REMEMBER! This medicine is designed expressly for OBSTINATE CASES, where all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain. Beware of IMITATIONS! None warranted unless purchased DIRECTLY of Dr. M. ☞ Orders by mail promptly attended to. Write your address PLAINLY, and direct to DR. H. N. MATTISON as above.

REMEDIAL INSTITUTE, FOR
Special Diseases,
No. 23 UNION ST., PROVIDENCE, R. I.

☞ This SPECIALITY embraces all diseases of a PRIVATE nature both of MEN and WOMEN, by a regularly educated physician of twenty years' practice, giving his WHOLE attention to them. ☞ Consultations by letter or otherwise are strictly confidential, and medicines will be sent by Express, secure from observation, to all parts of the United States. To Invalids,

All who have any serious or troublesome disease will very naturally seek advice somewhere, and this leads me to say a few words on the CHOICE OF A PHYSICIAN. And first, LET ALL QUACKS, IMPOSTERS AND HUMBUGS ALONE. If you have an intelligent physician in your vicinity apply to him, and follow his direction for a sufficient length of time, and he will probably cure you; if not, then apply to one who makes your disease a SPECIALITY, for no physician in general practice, no matter how eminent, can treat a given disease or class of diseases as successfully, as one of the same ability who devotes his whole attention to them. But here let me put you on your guard. ADVERTISING PHYSICIANS, IN NINE CASES OUT OF TEN, ARE IMPOSTORS. Unable to write a single sentence correctly themselves, they copy by the column the quack advertisements from the Boston Herald, simply changing the names and place of business. They publish FALSE CERTIFICATES of persons who NEVER EXISTED, cunning the unwary into their rogues, and after getting their names and residence, extort large sums of money from them under threatened exposure, or fleece them by their rates and vulgar profanity. There are scores of persons who will read this that can attest to its truth from EXPERIENCE; and yet they are compelled to suffer in silence for fear of exposing themselves. The only security against imposition is in making INQUIRY before consulting ANY ONE. Take no man's word, but ask for the PROOF, one word of which is worth more to you than half a column of extravagant and false ADVERTISING. If you allow yourself to be misled by false statements and go blindly into traps set for you without making any inquiry, you will have reason to repent it when it is too late.

DR. MATTISON is the only educated Physician in Providence, if not in New England who devotes exclusive attention to Private Diseases and Diseases of Women, and he furnishes the most undoubted references and testimonials to all. If there are any others, LET THEM DO THE SAME. 3

MR. GEORGE SHARROCK takes this opportunity to inform his numerous patrons, and the public generally, that he has commenced the TIN PLATE AND SHEET IRON BUSINESS, in all its branches. He will pay particular attention to Jobbing, Repairing, &c., &c. He is to be found at his Old Stand, No 224 Thames Street, (opposite the Perry Mill,) where they will find a good assortment of Cutlery, Plated and Brittania Ware, Glass, China, Crockery, Jappanned and Wooden Ware, &c., &c. o6

Miscellaneous.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Head ache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadacke this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞ HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach, constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches: Anemia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper.—In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtile power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

Bridget.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it naither, but perhaps ye'll be afther knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarther and give me the Pills and don't be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills that flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abscesses, Dysentery, Diarrhea, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage.—From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Head ache, Bilious Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

Cephalic Pills,

CURE SICK HEADACHE!

Cephalic Pills,

Cure Nervous Headache!

Cephalic Pills,

CURE ALL KINDS OF HEADACHE!

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea, and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

DR. MOTT'S

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion of Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land.—Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculous, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers, it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed

Though made expressly for TAILORS AND SHOE BINDERS, it is found to be as well, if not better, adapted to the general work of a family as any machine that has yet been invented.
